THE BVWS CODE OF PRACTICE:

It is a condition of membership of the British Vintage Wireless Society that members support our objectives in a spirit of mutual co-operation and observe the code set out below.

Our objectives are to encourage the preservation and communication of technical and historical data, and to preserve or restore vintage equipment. Membership of the Society must not be exploited for purely commercial advantage. Similarly, members must take care not to knowingly misrepresent or allow misunderstanding of authenticity, condition or age of any item offered in a transaction. Members must observe the Society's rules relating to the conduct of meetings and auctions, as advertised in connection with specific events. In particular, ad hoc transactions prior to official opening of a meeting, or withdrawal of catalogued auction items in favour of a private deal, are not acceptable. Finally, members must not compromise the good standing of the Society by associating it with any dishonest or unethical activity.

For purposes of exemption from registration, under the "Data Protection Act", I agree that the details given may be included in the BVWS computer list, specifically for Bulletin and other Society Only mailing purposes.

If this application is successful, I agree to be bound by the Society Constitution and Code of Practice.

NOTE: The Society reserves the right to decline applications for membership.
